Disclaimers

Students with Disabilities

In accordance with the Americans with Disability Act, please advise course director if you have a disability requiring special accommodations so that appropriate personnel can be advised prior to course.

American Heart Association Statement

The American Heart Association (AHA) strongly promotes knowledge and proficiency in all AHA courses and has developed instructional materials for this purpose. Use of these materials in an educational course does not represent course sponsorship by the AHA. Any fees charged for such a course, except for a portion of fees needed for AHA course materials, do not represent income to the AHA.

ENA Statement

A standardized nationwide fee for TNCC/ENPC Provider or TNCC/ENPC Instructor is not set, because the costs associated with conducting these courses varies from location to location. An indirect fee is submitted to National ENA for each participant. A portion of the indirect fee is returned to the ENA State Council to support their trauma program and other council functions (e.g., nursing practice functions).

Cancellation Policy

We reserve the right to cancel courses in the event of weather conditions, class size and instructor availability. Students will be notified via email and/or by phone. Student may cancel by email or phone. Students may reschedule only one time without penalty. A course fee is necessary for a second rescheduled request.
